

Notice of Allowance for Patent Application in Israel

Israel, Petach Tikva, January 12, 2012 – InsuLine Medical, a technology development, production and marketing company in the field of products designed to improve the effectiveness of insulin therapy, today announced that the Israel Patent Register informed the company that it has completed examination of Patent Application No. 201044 and will shortly proceed to issue a notice of allowance for that application. This application is a National Phase Application of PCT Application IB/2008/051049.